Full Bio:

Maribeth is a partner at the law firm which she joined in 1987. She is a member of the firm's Human Resources Management Group which provides consultation to employers in formulating positive, pro-active, employment relations programs including employee attitude assessments, employment practice audits, and supervisory training. She has also represented employers before state and federal courts and administrative agencies in all areas of labor relations and employment law. Maribeth frequently lectures on a variety of employment law issues including the Family and Medical Leave Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, sexual harassment, and substance abuse in the workplace. Previously, Maribeth was a law clerk for a United States Federal District Judge in the Northern District of Ohio. She is a member of the State Bar of Ohio and of the Labor and Employment Section of the Cleveland Bar Association. She is also a member of the American Bar Association. Maribeth received her Bachelor of Science degree magna cum laude, from Bowling Green State University. She is a graduate of the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law at Cleveland State University.
