Full Bio:

Nikki Farley, an associate with Millisor & Nobil, practices in the area of Workers' Compensation and Employment Litigation. Nikki recently joined Millisor & Nobil after gaining valuable experience at Ross Britain & Schonberg, a Cleveland based Labor & Employment firm. Her practice focuses on the defense of Workers' Compensation claims both administratively and in court and general employment litigation. She advises employers regarding various Workers' Compensation and employment related issues. She represents corporate clients on all issues arising from Workers' Compensation claims including analyzing claims, attending Industrial Commission Hearings, preparation of appeals, and settlement hearings. She also handles various aspects of employment litigation such as preparation of discovery, depositions and attendance at case management and settlement conferences.

Prior to joining Millisor & Nobil in 2006, Nikki practiced in Human Resources Management, Employment Litigation and Workers' Compensation.

Nikki received her undergraduate degree Cum Laude from Ohio University. She then earned her Juris Doctor from Case Western Reserve School of Law in 2003.

Nikki is a member of the Cleveland and Ohio State Bar Associations. She also is an active member of City of Lakewood Chamber of Commerce and a volunteer for Hospice of the Western Reserve.
