Full Bio:

Rebekah J. Nilges joined Millisor & Nobil Co., L.P.A. in August 2008 as a litigation and labor and employment paralegal. She assists the firm with document review, background and legal research tasks, and trial preparation.

In 2002, Rebekah began her paralegal career at a defense law firm in Cleveland, Ohio where she assisted the workers' compensation practice group with asbestos and mesothelioma workers' compensation cases. Additionally, she was a member of the firm's litigation group where she received extensive trial preparation, bankruptcy, corporate, OSHA, and labor and employment experience. Further, from 2004-2008, Rebekah worked as a medical malpractice and litigation defense paralegal at a defense law firm in Canton, Ohio in the Health & Medicine and Litigation practice groups.

She has successfully completed Westlaw's Certificate for Paralegal Research, and LexisNexis's Certificate of Mastery of Case Analysis, Cite Checking, Locating and Profiling People, and Corporate and Financial Research.

In 2008, Rebekah created "Paralegal Corner" for the monthly publication of the Stark County Bar Association's Newsletter. She authors articles on the topics of paralegal professional growth, regulation, education, and paralegal utilization. She is also co-editor and contributor to the Ohio State Bar Association's Paralegal Newsletter.

Rebekah resides in North Canton with her husband, Hans, and son, William.
