Full Bio:

Bob Dezort, a partner of Millisor & Nobil, is the head of the firm's employment litigation department. He has been exclusively representing management in labor, employment and workers' compensation matters since joining the firm in 1999. He has been a shareholder of the firm since 2003. In the employment litigation arena, Bob has successfully defended employers in wrongful discrimination, harassment, wrongful discharge and trade secrets/non-competition claims. He also heads up the firm's employment litigation teams for the firm's large EPLI insurance practice where he manages dozens of employment lawsuits. He also has significant traditional labor law experience representing the firm's clients in union organizing campaigns, unfair labor practice charges, and labor arbitrations. Prior to his association to the firm, Bob represented a wide variety of businesses in complex civil litigation and employment/labor-related matters.

Bob received his BA in economics from The College of William and Mary in 1989 and earned his Juris Doctor Magna Cum Laude from Cleveland State University in 1992. He was admitted to practice in the State of Ohio in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio in 1992.

Bob is a fitness enthusiast who enjoys cycling and kayaking. He is also an avid college football fan. When he is not rooting for The Ohio State University he travels to college campuses across the country to watch college football's greatest rivalry games. He is active in the community, formerly serving on the Board of Directors of the West Side Catholic Center, a nonprofit social services agency dedicated to ending homelessness.
